Mechanics Institute.

This seems to be the favored resort of citizens and strangers when the Agricultural Fair and the Races have suspended operations for the day. Each night the crowd is overwhelming, and the display of useful and ornamental articles seem to grow more and more attractive. In the useful, which engages the attention and excites the greatest amount of interest, is the splendid manufacture by E. Hart's establishment. It is perfect in its way. He has taken several premiums, especially one for his Portable Engine.

Another very important portion of the exhibit is the oil-play of cotton. It is only within a short time that these have been exhibited in Louisville. Mr. F. Lawrence Senn, almost without exception, exhibits from the laboratory of Dr. J. Lawrence Senn, almost without exception, which can now be obtained which medicines, active, or art demands. He also exhibits some new metal, Aluminium, which is said to possess qualities making it superior to both gold and silver.

We see also in his collection some of the exquisite Ossier of Ross, made in the mountains of Turkey. There is about a goblet full, which was distilled from three thousand pounds of roses. C. Sargent, and Scherer & Fagan also exhibit fine chemicals.

We notice a late entry in the shape of picture frames, made by Campbell & Underwood, for whom Mr. Wood, of Third Street, is agent. They are fine specimens of gilding, and are neat and substantial in pattern.

Jagger & Co. exhibit some fine china ware. Bohemian ware, statuary, &c., which please the eye from their beauty.

The aquarines on exhibition are curiosities to those who behold them for the first time, and they are very interesting to the student of nature at all times. The inhabitants of water are brought directly under the eye, so that their habits can be studied and their quaint forms inspected minutely.

J. D. Bonduart exhibits some tastefully colored drawings of vegetables. These suggest a feast for an epicure. He proposes to sell their seeds so that every farmer can cultivate them and supply the city with extra delicacies.

Mr. Melcher exhibits some earthen jars, huge enough to contain the forty thieves.

Edward Jewell has a working model of a stationary engine, which only occupies a space of about ten inches by four. Steam is generated for it by means of a small lamp.

John E. Biran, who is only eighteen years of age, also exhibits a small engine. It displays remarkable mechanical ingenuity.

J. B. Russell's wooden ware, forms a graceful collection of household utensils. Good housewives never fail to visit his stable.

David Marshall has a case of boots and shoes which exemplifies his popularity among ladies and gentlemen of our city.

The ladies have made fine displays of their tasteful handiwork this year. Mrs. Mary Kelly has a case of hair work which is a family monument. Mrs. M. E. Schaelester manufactures beautiful hair jewelry. Miss Dora Schulz exhibits a child's dress elegantly embroidered. Miss Louise Mitchell exhibits some wax flowers which vie with nature in form and color. They only need the morning dew to make them perfect. The Misses Lawrence paint beautifully in pastel. Mrs. Nauy A. Harvey exhibits a fine quilt; Miss R. Braunsbach a tidy; Miss Himmel a table cover; Miss Stark an elaborate piece of patchwork; Miss Helm also exhibits a table cover; Miss Emma McIlrath, only ten years of age, exhibits some beautiful embroidery. There are many other charming articles by ladies which shall endeavor to notice in our next issue.

Henderson.—We learn that a homicide of a shocking character was committed at Owensboro, Daviess County, Ky., on Monday last. A young man by the name of Taylor, a saddler by trade, in a fit of intoxication, on Sunday, inflicted a severe wound on his right leg, and, on Tuesday, when he had recovered, cut off the limb.

Garrison's Head.—The article that attracts universal attention at the Fair of the Mechanics' Institute is the head manufactured by Mr. Garrison of this city. Mr. Schuster, who has charge of the department of refreshment, supplies it to the public. The head is of the Good Shepherd in the West as a most delicious beverage. It supplies all orders with the same quality of article at his establishment in this city. It is the pure and genuine thing. If you want "mead as mead," try Garrison's. No one who ever patronized him once failed to do so again.

FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING.—Messrs. J. L. Deppen & Co., at their "Mammoth Clothing Depot," corner of Fourth and Market streets, have one of the largest and most elegant stocks of fall and winter clothing and gentlemen's furnishings ever offered for sale in this city. Their articles are of the best and their prices the lowest, and we can command Messrs. Deppen & Co. to establish in the West can furnish a handsomer outfit and at a lower price than they can.

Those of our readers in want of superior Furniture will bear in mind Mr. C. C. Spencer's sale this morning, at his auction room. The furniture is mostly new, of home manufacture, and is, in every respect, desirable. The entire lot has to be closed out within reserve. Dealers and others will have at this sale an excellent opportunity to get superior furniture at low prices. A Rockaway carriage and a Piano are to be sold at 11 o'clock.

Mr. J. G. Mathers' large sale of carpets and furnishings is postponed until Wednesday, Sept. 26th. During the Fair week, and up to day of sale, the balance of his large stock will be arranged for inspection on the first and second floors. City and country buyers would do well to call and examine his stock. Many of his best styles of Brussels, and tapestry, and superfine carpets, and rich lace goods and other articles will be sold.

FARMERS' ATTENTION.—We learn that in consequence of dissatisfaction expressed by some exhibitors at the award of premiums at the fair yesterday, on the part of the judges, the weather being cold, and the rain falling, the entire structure of the amphitheater will be removed. We will be on the lookout, referring to our river column, that the river is rising with unusual rapidity, and the flats are likely to be navigable for the largest boats by the close of the week. The weather has become very chilly, making thick coats and fires comfortable, and the visitors of "Jack Frost" may be daily expected.

If we were called upon to select among all the discoveries of the last few years the one which has done the most good in a quiet way, we should unhesitatingly name Dr. John Bull's "Vegetable Worm Destroyer." Beautiful in appearance, delicate to the taste, and safe, prompt and certain in its effects, it stands without a rival.

THIRD DAY.

The attendance was every way superior yesterday to that of any of the preceding days. The crowd commenced passing in at a very early hour, and long before midday the Amphitheater, Florida Hall and Power Hall were crowded with visitors, curious to see what was on exhibition displaying man's ingenuity.

At nine o'clock in the morning, the trials on the track against time took place. These were exciting, and engaged the attention of those who were interested in the quality of fastness in horses. The Woodlawn Course, however, being so near at hand, rather destroyed the usual excitement of racing at the Fair.

Immediately after the track trials, the exhibition took place in the AMPHITHEATER.

First came draft horses. The Stallions reminded one of old Homeric conflicts where the horse felt the spirit of the occasion, and behaved in proud defiance to all competitors. Mares and Geldings were also shown, both single and in pairs, to point to be killed is who should build them. The real question is whether this important enterprise will be a success or not.

Louisville:

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1859.

Reading Matter on Every Page.

Whenever we urge the nomination of a Southern man for the Presidency, we are invariably met with the remark that it is necessary to nominate a Northern man to secure success, and some go further and declare that Douglass is the only man that can be elected.

If this were the case, then would it indicate a marked decentralization in the Northern Democracy, and plainly evidence that its claim to nationality is false, and that it is as much a sectional party as any other organization in existence. If fanaticism has progressed so far, that a Democrat cannot be elected to the Presidency because he may happen to reside South of Mason & Dixon's line, then the South may as well surrender its rights to the keeping of the North.

It is a humiliating confession to be made by a Democrat, that a Southern man cannot be elected to the Presidency, but the reasons assigned for it are far more humiliating. We cannot elect a Southern man, because of his locality and his views on slavery; we must pander just a little to the South, because of her Southern bonnets and kists and varicolored plaid, and the giddy surroundings, presented a picturesque scene.

The last was a trial of strength in three days, a hand-to-hand struggle. The two who won the prize, threw it 65 and 65 feet. The prizes for throwing a light hamper, weighing 12 pounds, were won by the two who threw it 65 and 65 feet in length, neat took place. A stone weighing 24 pounds, placed in the palm of the hand, was thrown by one member 23 1/2 feet, and 23 1/2 feet by another. The gold cup or silver plate, and trophy, fall and winter dry goods, cloths, beavers, velvets, plush domes, prints, merinnes, plaids, table cloths, Gen's under wear, shawls, in fact hundreds of articles too numerous to mention. Also, a full assortment of clothing, boots and shoes, hats and caps, &c., &c.

A RAINBOW.—The River, as we stated, commenced rising Wednesday evening, 54 hours, it had risen 42 inches at the head of the falls. That is a very rapid rise—nearly two inches per hour, which was wholly unexpected at this time. The weather has been very cool and cold¹, day, rendering trees and heavy clothing comfortable.

In the canal last evening there were sent six feet of water over the falls, and as far down as Cairo. The river was 100 feet above the falls. There were four feet water in the pass. On the fall the evening previous there were barely seven inches water, which makes the rise on the falls in 24 hours, from 100 to 104 feet, or more, report says.

The Bullard last evening reported a rise of 1½ inches at the wharf. This gives a clear concern.

Private disputes yesterday from Cincinnati, and the like, have almost entirely passed at that point. The Pittsburg rise has not yet reached them, though we do not expect it to make much of a rise on the present stage of water. Its influence should be felt to-morrow.

The Cincinnati Price Current publishes the hogs as rises in 100 parts of tide state, which foot up to $100, an increase over last year of $34,154.

The sales of leaf tobacco amounted to 65 cents, but most of them were of inferior grade and the prices were low.

FLOUR AND GRAIN.—Sales 100 bushels country super-and extra at $4 20¢ to $5 00. We quote city super-
